

Robert J Fuller

December 19, 1946 - November 23, 2020

Robert J. Fuller, age 73 of Amboy, passed away Monday, November 23rd, 2020 at the home of his daughter in Clinton, IA. He was born on December 19th, 1946 in Chicago and was the son of Fred and Florence (Heinzel) Fuller. Robert worked at Aurora Packing Company for 41 years prior to his retirement in 2018.

He was preceded in death by his parents and brother John (Helga) Fuller.

Robert is survived by his 4 children, Matthew (Mackenzie) Fuller of Amboy, Brittany (Nick) Barbari of Plainfield, Michelle (Nick Mangusing) Fuller of Clinton, IA and Bianca (Montana Myers) Fuller of Dixon. Robert was also blessed with 4 grandchildren, Bronson, Amira, Marley and Zayla with one additional grandson on the way. He is also survived by three siblings, Sandra (Bob) Shannon of Western Springs, IL, Joan (Morris) Lenk of California and Fred "Boots" Fuller of Calumet City, IL.

Robert was the most patient, kind, hardworking family man there was. He always made sure everyone else was taken care of before himself. His love for his children, grandchildren and animals was unmatched. His free time was spent with them, as well as spoiling his grandchildren as much as he possibly could. His smile could light up a room, and no one ever got tired of his same favorite dad jokes. He will truly be missed by everyone who knew him.

Visitation will be on Saturday, November 28th, 2020 from 11:00 AM to 12:45 PM at the Mihm-Jones Funeral Home in Amboy with a limit of 10 people at a time. A private family service will be held Saturday at 1:00 PM. Burial will follow at St. Patrick Cemetery in Amboy. Face masks are required at the visitation and service.

“ I remember the first time my family drove out to Amboy to visit at the new home. What a long and uneventful drive for a 11 year old, 'who would want to live in Amboy' I thought. Within a short while after we arrived I watched my uncle Bob at ease on the open floor with unbroken attention on with Matthew and Brittany. It looked like a familiar routine where on his back uncle Bob held one of the twins up above him and played toss baby up and catch. I had never seen Uncle Bob play with children before, or any dad play on the floor like that. With a father's love for four children, Amboy meant something else to me now. Sorry for the loss to the family. "Weeping may tarry at night, but joy comes in the morning." Nick

“ Most of my memories of Bob are from long ago, when we were growing up together on the south side of Chicago. He was a kind and loving big brother.

One silly, happy memory I have is of all of us kids dancing/jumping around to the sounds of our sister Sandra's records. Some of the favorites were Rockin Robin, Mambo Italiano and Tequila!

And animals.... yes, we had so many pets! One memorable one was Chico. Bob found a tiny baby squirrel, and he nursed and cared for him until he was big and strong and fluffy. He was a beloved family pet for many seasons. One bittersweet day, Bob decided it was time to set Chico free, and he did. We all cried, but we watched as Chico ran off to join the other squirrels- perhaps long-separated family members.

I'm grateful that Bob had kids and grandkids to love, and who loved him.

He is a very special soul.
