“ I have a lot of memories for the few years we knew Aaron. But one that comes to mind the most is "surfing" in the pool in the summer. Game night with what do you meme, his big ass truck that he refused to give up on, and golf cart rides. Aaron will be missed and never forgotten. RIP

“ Aaron was a bright star in the lives of so many people. He was a kind and caring young man. He was the kind of man that was always willing to help when help was needed without even being asked. He was a great conversationalist and listener. There were many times when I would drop by for a visit and he and I would end up at the kitchen table discussing everything from world problems to the latest project he or I had going on. Though he and my daughter were not married I was proud to call him my son in law. See you on the other side my friend.

“ Aaron loved taking his boat out on the river. He usually had his “honey” (Missy) with him when he did.
I do know he loved my daughter very much. And, I loved him for that. He also loved his son Hunter. What a delightful boy he is. My prayers are with Aaron’s family and friends. I’ll never forget you Aaron, you’ll always be a part of our family. Go in peace till we meet again.
