“ Grandma Agnes,

Thank you for all the times that you remembered us, and stayed in touch, despite the distance. I loved getting cards from you addressed to Master Erik. They really made my day and always made me feel important.

Thank you for the box of school supplies that you collected from your classes each year and sent to us. As a kid, it was like getting a treasure chest! I still have, and use, the clipboard from one of those chests. My own little treasure that I keep to this day. It reminds me of you and being a kid.

And one last thank you... Thank you for your perseverance. You took a tough situation, rose above it, and raised three great kids. Your lessons and strength have been passed down to me and my brothers through your daughter. And for that, I am most thankful, because your greatest gift to me is my mother.

Grandma, rest in peace knowing that you are loved and missed.
