“ Some lights are just too bright to shine among us. God calls them home sooner than we would like. She must be so special to be called home to be perfected so soon. I did not know Ali personally, but her daddy takes really good care of my son at school.

“ I only met Ali briefly taking her photo but she always left an impression on me. I regret that I didn't follow my heart and offer to take more photos of Ali. She is a beautiful Angel that will never be forgotten. So small but made such an impression on everyone around her. Fly with the Angels Ali, And may God send comfort to those left behind.

“ My words feel so inadequate to express the sorrow we feel for your loss. Losing a child is a pain we could never imagine. So unbelievably, heartbreaking that you can never get over it. Our hearts and prayers go out to you at this most difficult time.

It does give us hope to know that Ali is now in Heaven running, playing & signing with the Angels— free of the human body that held her back, she is smiling down and will always be with you. ~The Powers Family~

Tears are not the mark of weakness, but of power. They speak more eloquently than ten thousand tongues. They are the messengers of overwhelming grief... and unspeakable love.” -Washington Irving-

“ Ali,

We are going to miss you so much. Grandpa and Grandma are going to be lost without around, it won't be the same every night after work, knowing you won't be there for us to take care of you. Thumper will miss his buddy too.

You we're taken away from us too soon, but know we know your in a better place, you can dance, sing and run like no one is watching, we sure wished we could have watched you do all this. We will always remember your laugh, I don't know how you would know when to laugh, like you understand what we we're talking about and we would start laughing and you would join in with us. We will miss that about you. You always liked butterflies, We will be watching for you flying high all around us, while we sit outside and listen for you to sing like a bird. We love you forever and ever.

Miss you tons.

Love Grandma and Grandpa Temmen.

“ Ali,
Grandma and Grandpa are going to miss you so much. We won't know what to do after work to take care of you. Thumper will miss you more, he won't have anyone to protect anymore. We love you so much, We'll miss your laugh, you could always laugh at the right moment, We don't know if you knew what we we're talking about and all of a sudden you would start laughing at the same time we did. I just wish we could have know what you we're thinking. Your not in any pain anymore, you can dance, sing and run like no one is watching. Just remember we will never forget you, your in our hearts forever and ever. Miss you and Love you so much.

“ Justin and Abbey now that your precious baby has earned her wings she is free of the awful disease that held her down. We all know that she will be fine in God's arms. It is you her parents and grandparents that will be aching. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. You guys are a beautiful family and Ali was so lucky to have been a part of that.

“ Ali there are so many memories I have since I have become a part of the Lahman family. My favorite memory has to be seeing you hold my newest baby boy Paxton, your cousin. It is a memory I will never forget along with so many more. I miss everything about you and of course will miss that adorable laugh we would sometimes hear. Thanks for being my favorite niece and the best big cousin my boys could ask for. Love you baby girl!!!

“ I vividly remember Ali Jean going to Miller Park at the ripe old age of 1 month (I think) and seeing Zambrano pitch a no-hitter for the Cubs! Now she'll be cheering them on with her uncle Jack....Ali you will be missed by thousands...I only got to meet you a couple of times and I'm so glad I did...prayers to Abby and Justin, Georgia and Gerry, and all who knew her! Fly high, Ali XOXO
