“ Alice was one of the hardest working people I ever met, yet she always had a smile on her face. She could be counted on to pay you a compliment, remember your children, or commiserate over a bad day. Alice did not gossip, say mean things, or make sarcastic remarks. She didn't think that she knew it all, when in fact, she knew a lot more than many who worked with us! I always thought of her as a great example of a good Christian woman! You were all so lucky to call her Mom or Grandma.....

“ My kids and I will always have fond memories of playing games at Aunt Alice's kitchen table and laughing!!!! It was always such a good time, one time it was even w/the sisters, Bunny, Flo, Irene and Alice we laughed so hard our stomachs hurt, playing Farkle even eye glasses went a flyin'. Glad my kids have the memories too!!!
