“ Tony was great to work with. He had a special knack for getting people to work together. Tony had a way of bringing out the best in everyone. Although my interactions with Tony were mostly work related, there were those times when he would talk about the success of his children and how they were doing at the U of I. He was definitely proud of their successes. Tony loved the U of I too. He earned the respect of everyone he worked with. He had a special way of making everyone feel welcome. His sudden, untimely death was a shock to all of us. Tim Peters

“ My deepest condolences to the Baratta family. It is hard to imagine a world without Tony's kindness in it. Tony has been such an amazing friend, mentor, and teacher to so many of us. I was truly fortunate to have him as a mentor and friend. He was so happy for all the successes his family has achieved through the years. His eyes lit up when ever he spoke of Lori, Alyssa, Dominic and little Lucas. Please know we are grieving with you. Tony will be sorely missed.

“ I'm still in shock and finding it difficult to write these few words. Tony, was one of the first people Masood worked with at IDOT back in 1989. They became very good friends and became brothers from another mother. Now a days it's hard to find a friendship so unique and true to heart like Tony's. Masood is a true Dallas Cowboy fan and Tony a Chicago Bears fan the banter these two shared was one of kind. I like to say... thank you Tony for being such a good friend to my husband, and for having a heart of GOLD. You'll be GREATLY missed dear friend. Sincere sympathy to ALL of his family and friends. Lori, Alyssa, and Dominic may the memories bring you comfort during this most difficult time. Peace and love. Oralia Ahmad

“ Tony was one of the sweetest and most kind/caring coworkers I've ever had. I smiled every time I seen him in the hall because you knew you were going to get one in return. IDOT lost one of the great ones. -You will be missed, My Friend. I'm sending my most sincere condolences to your family and friends!
