“ *Saddened by the news of Brian's passing. One of the most memorable people I have known. Ozzie as we all called him had a great sense of humour and was sure to tell you what he thought not what he thought you wanted to hear. I knew he was technically savvy as he learned his trouble shooting skills the way I did in the early days of TV repair. The world will miss him. Love and prayers go out to family and friends. “ I have fond memories of Brian. He was such a fun loving guy, and a bit of a prankster. If he ever held out a frosted pastry and asked you if you thought it smelled funny, you better walk away. I've seen more than one person end up with a glob of frosting on their nose. There's a real hole in the world without Brian in it. I am looking forward to seeing him again one day. He would always stress how important it is to know the Lord and with that to know with certainty where you'd be in eternity.

“ I'm happy to have had the opportunity to meet Brian and his wife. The last time I saw him was at his mother's funeral. He was in a wheel chair. I told him that it was Ruth. He said oh I am so glad to see you again. A very sweet man, one thing I remember is that one day he was sitting in a big chair in his mom's apt, I went in and Had prayer with him. Was so appreciative for that. I will never forget the whole family, they were all so gracious. God bless each one of you. You are all in my prayers .LOVE IN CHRIST RUTH PULLEN.
