“ Dear Jeannine and all,

So sorry for your loss. I didn't know your dad that well, but I remember him as a quiet and kind man. I know he is in his rightful place and a peace.

My prayers are with you all,

“ To the Otto Family:
I've known this gentle man all my life, a loving Husband and Father to Jeannine and Jeff, and Loving Husband to Ms. Theresa. Many a time Theresa and Chuck would watch me as a child, so my Mother could work. Chuck would take us all out to his hunting cabin and he would cook and Light a Bonfire for us kids to roast Marshmallows. I will miss him dearly as I always enjoyed seeing him when I returned to My Old Home Town. Jeannine and Jeff my prayers are with you both.

“ I am sorry to hear of the passing of my cousin, Bud. Although we were never very close because of our age difference and later a geography separated us, I did always respect and admire Bud for his devotion to his wife and daughter. Please know that Bud and his family are in my thoughts and prayers. Both Dean and I send our love.
