“ Grandparents are a gift; the founders of a loving legacy, the greatest storytellers, the keeper of traditions that linger on in cherished memories. Grandparents are the family's strong foundation. Their special love sets them apart. I am so so thankful for the years of memories I have and will forever cherish of my Grandpa and Grandma. Pontoon boat rides, summer adventures and stays, my Grandpa's advice and stories, him walking me down the isle, and most of all the closeness that he and Grandma brought to our family. I never felt more love than I did from these two people. Grandpa was a man that I was so proud of. He was full of wisdom, love, and support. He was a quiet man, a family man, a humble man. He was independent and strong, regardless of his circumstances. He was a good man, a gentle man, the best man. My hero.

*Dawn and Michelle,
I worked side by side with your father at Dean Food's for 20 years. He taught me how to schedule production and purchase goods which was valuable information. He was a good person. One thing I remember most about Dennis, he had a cup of coffee in one hand and a cigarette in the other. Great times at Dean Foods and we were all like a family. I'm so very sorry for your loss. Do to prior obligations I won't be able to attend the funeral tomorrow.
Sincerely,
Barb McClanahan*

“ Two summers ago in August, mom and I had been helping a baby duck with a crooked foot. We brought her to Grandpa Poppy's house and he absolutely adored the duck! He was swatting flies for her to eat and playing with her with the happiest smile on his face! I am super happy I have this memory! And I will never forget it! I hope in heaven he has a pet duck□
