“ I live down the road from Derrick, my name is Dianna Woodrow. Derrick was the Sweetheart young man in my eyes. Always a smile. I met him from our dogs going to each other houses. He helped me on many occasions with lifting heavy things, never was too busy to help. I am a single 67 year woman and not as strong as I used to be. Always waved when he went by on bike or truck. I will miss him and that smile. I am so so Sorry he was way too young.
