“ Hazel and I knew Diana and Mike from way back in the early 70s. They stood up to ur wedding. I remember Diana as a happy person willing to do all she could to help people out. That's what she and Mike did for Hazel and me. They let us live in their house just prior to our wedding and for two months after we were married. They even drove us to the airport and sat with us until boarding time when we were leaving for the states in 1974. Our prayers go out to the Inman family. Rest in Peace Diana

“ May God be with all of the family at this time or sorrow .

I only met Diana once, at Joshua and Loreen's Wedding Day. I could see the love she had for all of you.

Diana was very happy on that day.

Abigail , Loreen and Joshua was smiling, They all looked happy.

Diana was at our side taking it all in.

May she rest in peace.

I am sure God is with her and all of you today,
