“ *Too the Noble Family,
Connie, Cheryl, Don, and Doug I'm very sorry to hear of your father's passing he was a very kind man and loving father who cherished his children and grand-children. I will miss his jokes and smiles when I visit Amboy. We all have alot of good memories of your families growing up over the years and I truley will miss him. As I also do your mom. Our prayers are with you all.
God bless,
Ronda & Jerry*

“ Please accept my condolences. Don was a truly nice man and fun to share fishing stories with. When I was a kid (many years ago), my Grandparents (Harry and Dorothy Morey) had the place on Jones Lake just a couple doors down from Don's. I used to enjoy talking with him about where the fish were biting and what they were biting on. He always gave me good advice to help me catch more.
