

Donald Turner

December 22, 1930 - April 15, 2006

Donald Everett Turner age 75 of Dixon left his earthly body Sat. April 15, 2006 while residing at New Main Group Home where he was supported and loved by family and staff. He was born in Dixon on December 22, 1930. His father, Louie, mother Mary and brothers Darrow and Robert preceded him in death. He is survived by his devoted aunt Agnes Franklin, who took care of him for many years and then visited regularly when he went to live at New Main Group Home. His cousin Joan and husband Gene Lemme helped Agnes over those many years. They were helped by their children Marie Popkin, Kristin Carlson and Eric Lemme as well as her brother Joe Franklin and his wife Ida. Donny took part in all family gatherings. He loved everything he was given by family and friends especially his tractors and trucks. He loved to laugh and ended most conversations with "That's right!" He became part of the Kreider family about four years ago and made many new friends being the sweet person he was. He was at Ashton Group Home for 2 years and then moved to New Main after the death of his brother in 2004. He loved to talk about when he used to shovel coal in Dement Town, which the staff at New Main heard about often. They made his final years as happy and comfortable as possible. Funeral services will be held on Wednesday, April 19, 2006 at 10:30 AM in the Jones Funeral Home in Dixon. Visitation will be held on Wednesday from 9:30 AM until time of service. Cremation rites will follow with burial of cremains at a later date in Oakwood Cemetery. In lieu of flowers a memorial has been established to the Kreider Center.
