“ My ultimate dnenir guest would have to be by far with my two dearly departed grandma's. I was so lucky growing up ..I lived within 20 miles until I moved away at 18 to both of them. My mom used to say I would have my bags packed and ready to go home with my granny any time she came to visit- and most times she took me with her. It may seem corny but I miss them and their fun and wit both I am named after, both new how to make due with what they had, could hunt down a deal and just lived the good enough life I would make sure this dnenir was luxury all the way for them so we could just kick back, catch up and laugh, laugh, laugh.
