“ Words are so difficult to find which express my feelings at this time Doug. After all the Legion activities we shared together, this one will truly be a sad one for Post 453.

The Lord must have needed another sentinel in Heaven to "man the gates" and he couldn't have chosen a better one. We will "Miss You Doug."

“ Doug was a great guy who loved people and was always there if you asked. I was truly saddened to hear of his death. What a great husband, father, parishioner and friend. He loved his family so much and I thank God for the gift he was to our community. There are some people who make life a joy and Doug was one.

“ He was one of the kindest people I ever was privileged to meet. My most recent memory of Doug is how wonderful he is to my Aunt Jane I knew God put them together at this time of their lives. They both made each other so very happy. So glad for their short wonderful precious time together. Only wish it was much longer. RIP wonderfull Doug Foster.
