

E. Evans

February 8, 1925 - January 16, 2012

E. William "Bill" Evans, age 86, of Dixon, Illinois died Monday, January 16, 2012. He was born on February 8, 1925 in Dixon to Dr. L. R. and Neva (McCleary) Evans. Bill was a life-long resident of Dixon. He was a member of St. Luke's Episcopal Church and the Dixon Gyro Club. He retired from the Illinois Department of Transportation in 1984 after 31 years. Bill was an avid hunter and fisherman. He enjoyed many retirement years hunting and fishing with his good friends. He spent the last seven months of his life in the excellent care of the wonderful staff at Heritage Square. We will be forever grateful for their loving care. Bill was preceded in death by his wife of 30 years, Barbara Campbell Pollom Evans, his parents, and his brother, Dr. Robert H. Evans. Survivors include his son Robert D. (Lynn) Pollom, grandchildren, a nephew and two nieces. Funeral services will be held on Saturday January 21, 2012 at 11:00 AM in the Jones Funeral Home with the Rev. John Kalebaugh officiating. Burial will follow in Oakwood Cemetery in Dixon. Visitation will be on Friday from 5:00 to 8:00 PM in the funeral home. A memorial has been established to Ducks Unlimited.

“ Rob:

I am so sad to hear that Bill died. He was a great man, a great friend and someone who was very nice and helpful to me. I will always remember the many wonderful times we had together. I am sorry that we are in Mexico and will not be able to attend the services. I will personally pay my respects when I return in April. Let me know if there is anything I can do to help.

“ I have known Bill since I started to work with him in 1969 until his retirement. What a wonderful man. He was truly loved by all. Such a nice guy. Ralph SPrecher, Jerry Martiin and Bill the 3 musketeers. He is with his family and Ralph now. God Bless him. No more phone calls on his birthday. Love him. 3 3 2 E f
