“ Dear Family of Edna Bonnell,

I am so sorry to hear of Edna's passing. Edna and I worked together at Pamida, Dixon, IL, when the store first opened. I was Dept. Head of Fabrics and after awhile, the manager, sent Edna to my dept. to help out. Many days, I'd drive to the family home and give her a ride, (when we had the same starting hours). She was a faithful worker and a very nice person and very kind to everyone. We kept in touch for some time, even when she lived on Route#2, close to Grand Detour, but then time and work drifted us apart. She has been in my thoughts over the years, the most recent was Tuesday, the 26th. On that day, her memory was very strong. When I read of her passing, I was terribly saddened.

May the Lord touch each of you and may his caring angels surround you as you go through this difficult and sad time.

*My deepest sympathy,
Betty Kepka Schultz
Dixon, IL*
