“ Sheila and family so sorry for your loss. Many fun memories thru the years. The boys at Zero's new i pulled a few practical jokes on Ed over the years. Ed and me had something in common , we both never met a bar stool we didn't like. Paul Breitzka

“ Thinking of the Garland family in the face of loss this month. I have no doubt that the family will be “bulldogs” in moving ahead, but hope they can take a pause to celebrate all they do to impact others.

May God’s Grace be given to those who mourn and may the Mass of Resurrection deliver to him eternal life.

“ We worked together for many years at Byron, as we had so many great conversations, that we’d have to remind ourselves that we should probably get back to work. 🙄
Always loved seeing Ed’s smiling face walk into the room and now, just so sorry to hear that he’s left us, I will always remember those good memories of him. 😞
RIP my friend

“ Sheila and Jacob and Family,

*Please accept my condolences for the loss of Ed. Our friendship was forged when we were young and growing up. Those bonds remain solid. We hunted and played football together, and shared a similar heritage. I'll always remember number 60 after the Sterling game, dirty and bloodied. He left nothing on the field and was a captain by his efforts. He carried that work ethic through life. He had a charismatic belly laugh and his own unique moves to be hilarious. The man was tough yet always looked for the light side with a grin. As an Irishman myself and about a month older, I am deeply saddened by the loss of this fellow Knight, yet will take solace in the fact he is in the Lord's arms now. God Bless you through this time. Respectfully,
