“ Renate, if you read this..I am sorry to hear about your Mother's passing. We worked together at Klines and she was always there in the childrens. I enjoyed working with her very much and she was always kind to me. I lost my Mom 2 years ago and I know that they both lived long lives, we don't want them to leave & will always miss forever. Take care

“ I only knew Erika from when my Grandma & Grandpa were in the nursing home with her. She always had kind words to say about both of them, and I always stopped to chat with her. I loved her accent, her style...always black! She is a kind women who will be missed. When my Grandparents left the home, I missed seeing her. My thoughts and prayers are with her family. God bless.
