“ Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away-

her journey's just begun,

life holds so many facets- this earth is only one. . .

Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears

in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today

how nothing but our sadness

can really pass away.

And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched. . .

for nothing loved is ever lost- and she was loved so much.

In Loving Memory

“ The Dash Poem
A Poem by Linda Ellis

*I read of a man who stood to speak
At the funeral of a friend
He referred to the dates on her tombstone
From the beginning to the end*

*He noted that first came her date of her birth
And spoke the following date with tears,
But he said what mattered most of all
Was the dash between those years.*

*For that dash represents all the time
That she spent alive on earth.
And now only those who loved her Know what that little line is worth.*

*For it matters not how much we own;
The cars, the house, the cash,
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash.*

*So think about this long and hard.
Are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left,
That can still be rearranged.*

*If we could just slow down enough
To consider what's true and real
And always try to understand
The way other people feel.*

*And be less quick to anger,
And show appreciation more
And love the people in our lives*

Like we've never loved before.

*If we treat each other with respect,
And more often wear a smile
Remembering that this special dash Might only last a little while.*

*So, when your eulogy is being read
With your life's actions to rehash
Would you be proud of the things they say About how you spent your dash?*

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I went to elementary school with Faith and worked with her and her mom many years ago. She always made work a much more fun place to be for the people around her. Rest in peace Faith and blessings to her family.

“ I remember when you came to Mississippi to live, you were so Happy here, Charity was only a week or so old,we worked together, and had alot of good times together, I will remember you always.. GOD bless you and May you rest in peace..To all the family, have comfort in knowing all her pain and suffering are gone and walking on streets of gold' with loved ones that have gone on before..... (poem) I wish Heaven had a phone so I could hear your voice again. I thought of you today, but that is nothing new. I thought about you yesterday, and days before that too. I think of you in silence, I often speak your name. All I have are memories and a picture in a frame. Your memory is a keepsake from which I'll never part.... ...God has you in his arms...I have you in my heart...Love ya faith...
