“ During our early school days I used to cut through Faye's yard to get to the elementary school. We eventually became very good friends and played together until we got into High school and sort of drifted apart. I sure do wish we had lived closer so that I could have stayed friends. She sure did have a special spirit. I remember when she was Prom Queen and I felt like she did it for all of us common girls. Thanks Faye. Eileen Daniels McConnell class of '63
