“ Memories of Floris bring a smile, as she was always happy and greeted us with a hug. What a lady! She loved nice clothes and looking sharp. She was a faithful woman. Anyone who knows her knows how much she loved those grandchildren. A great lady who is now at peace with God and I know she must be smiling on all of us. God bless her family. Please accept our condolences. (I was at Kairos with Newman Senior Girls and was sorry to miss her funeral. Know you were all kept in my prayers.) Jean

“ The Mansion of Heaven

*This world, however beautiful,
Was never meant to be,
The place that we would call our home,
For all eternity.
And though we would not choose to leave,
A loving God knows best,
And in His time, He lifts us up to a place of peace and rest.*

*For He has built a mansion where His children will abide,
Free from pain and sorrow, forever at His side.
He said He'd never leave us to face our trials alone,
And though sometimes we fail Him, He never fails His own.
And even when our choices are less than He would ask,
He knows when human courage is unequal to the task.
We cannot judge what happens,
Though tears and questions start,
We only see what's visible,
God sees into the heart.*

*And though there may be many things that,
We cannot explain,
We can be sure it breaks His Heart,
To see His children's pain.
In loving arms, He bears us to a quiet place apart,
Where He mends the wounded spirit,
And heals the broken heart.*

*And though these ones we love so much,
Have left our present sight,
And passed into a better world of majesty and light.
Someday we'll be together,
In our Father's home above,
Where we'll thank Him for His mercy,
And praise Him for His love.*

*May He ease your heart of sorrow,
And surround you with His love,
And may it bring you strength to know,
Our Father's house above,
Is a house of many mansions,
Where His Son has set aside,
Special places near Him,
For His loved ones to abide.*

“ I was so sorry to hear about your wife and mother. I knew your family in our younger days around Harmon.

I remember Floris as being a very well thought of lady. She always seemed to be smiling.

I also remember her children, some of who went to school with my David and Pamela.

Please accept my sincere prayers for all of you. Losing a mother is not easy, but, remember she will always be with you.

Thinking of all of you.
