“ Diane, Roy, and Richard,

I was so surprised and sad to hear that your father died. You don't think of people getting older when you don't see them very often. He is still the fun father of my friends in high-school. I remember sitting in the kitchen with your mom and Dad just talking about stuff. Your mom and dad were always so friendly. We came down to Maytown very often to get Christmas trees, and some of the best Christmas memories of our kids are losing their boots in the high snow tromping around the tree patch. We have many warm family pictures on your land. I don't know about you, but I feel like I haven't aged since I was in my twenties.... I guess we all have though.

Ray and I would come to the funeral on Wednesday, but Ray's aunt died and her funeral is Wednesday morning also.

Please give your mom a hug for me, and tell her how much we all liked your dad.
