Condolences to Frank's family and especially to his partner, Angie Coffey, who stayed with him every step of his journey with cancer, (and before) holding his hand, comforting him, till the very end.

RIP Frank it's been a privilege to have you for a friend will always remember the Kentucky Derby parties at your house and you laughing at me as I screamed and jumped around the basement of your house as my horses were losing than winning and touched by the fact that you still had my Owl picture that I gave you for your house warming up in your basement will miss you my friend. Thoughts and prayers to your family and to Angie Coffey

“ I've been great friends with Frank for almost 20 years. I truly will miss him and all the fun times we had. He always had an array of different people for me to meet during our ventures. Frank will always be one of my favorite Leos and I have an eternal place in my heart for him. Sending my condolences to everyone who knew him and loved and cherished their time with him. Rest easy my friend and I'll work on "that" song for you!!
