“ Papa Disch, as we liked to call you in our teenage years, you will be missed! You put up with a lot of teenage girl giggles and shenanigans. I spent many nights at your house hanging out with Lisa. I always felt welcome. You were loved and respected by your family and all who knew you. May you rest in peace. Julie Thompson Brady

“ To the family of George. What a treasure. He was the only honest person I knew that worked on cars. He was always friendly with suggestions I could try on my own to fix my vehicle(s). When I did need him he was always there with a solution with a fair price. I know that he will be missed. John Cover Jr,
