“ Hank was a great "brother-in-law" to Tom and I; we will miss not being able to see him again. I remember your visits to us in Maine, the trip to the bay a low-tide. Hank was delighted to pick mussels, bring them back to our home. Hank knew exactly what to do -- the cleaning and steaming to get us the best tasting mussels ever. We enjoyed your visits so much. I liked that Hank was an avid reader, and I'm sure was knowledgeable about many topics aside from the obvious foodie!. I am so sorry for your loss, at this unusual time especially. Candy and Melissa, you are a wonderful family to him. Our thoughts will be with you always.

“ My friend Hank for over 50 years was a very talented and gifted food science consultant always available to help companies to create new product ideas, improve processing technics and offering instructions in food safety and Government regulations. In his community he made time as a EMT volunteer , Yes Hank was gifted in so many ways and blessed with a family that he loved and made him proudThank you for your Friendship Wayne

“Candy, Melissa and family, I am so sorry to learn of Henry’s passing. My memory of him takes me back to a third grade class and a hard to find book called The Oddkins. Henry was a supportive dad. Of course, so is Candy! My sympathy is with you and you grieve his passing.
