

Illa Lucille Carrington

April 18, 1928 - December 12, 2013

Illa Lucille Carrington age 85 of Dixon was welcomed joyfully into Heaven on Thursday December 12, 2013 at Dixon Heath Care and Rehabilitation Center. She was born April 18, 1928 in Harvey, IL the daughter of Robert and Myrtle (Colebank) Willstead. She married James C Carrington Sept. 4, 1946 in Clinton, IA. He preceded her in death Aug. 2, 1987.

She had farmed alongside her husband and previously worked at Raynor Door, Admiral Corp., and waitressed at the Victory Cafe. She also worked as a Certified Nurse Assistant for several years, never stopping to administer to others until the day the Lord called her home. She was a nurturing and empowering teacher, always willing to help others in need. She provided others with the learning and tools that helped them either complete the task at hand or better their lives. She was happy to see others succeed and was particularly proud of the accomplishments of her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She was a member of St Patrick Catholic Church, Catholic Women's Club and the Body Recall Group.

She is survived by one son John (Sandra) Carrington of Dixon, two daughters Carol (Roger) Corning of Dixon, and Linda (Scott) Campbell of Rhinelander, WI, son in law Stephen Holbert of Freeport, 11 grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren, and one brother Art (Wanda) Willstead of Woosung.

She was preceded in death by a daughter Karen Holbert, a grandson John David Carrington and granddaughter Marcella Corning.

Cremation rites have been accorded and services will be held at a later date.
