I can only echo Janet's sentiments! I will always remember Aunt Irma as a beautiful woman who worked so hard for her family! She had so many gifts and was so willing to share. I was the beneficiary of her sewing talents many times and everything was done to perfection! I can also remember the wonderful looking desserts and dishes she brought to the pot luck dinners! Although she will be missed, she deserves to rest in peace and enjoy the fruits of her labors. I know Uncle Red along with her children and family were there to welcome her! What a reunion that must have been!
