“ Jim's life was a full circle, from God's hand into the hand of God. Every life he touched was made more noble and beautiful by his love and enduring friendship. He loved each of his family members deeply and uniquely. He lived a modest and humble life. Jim was a loving, kind, and generous man. He was a loyal friend. I loved him my entire life and have very happy and comforting memories of him since childhood. His joviality and endearing laugh I will always treasure. He was a boundless source of fun and merriment. I thought of him as poetry in motion. The glint in his Irish eyes is shining now in my heart. Take comfort that he had great joy in life because of your love and faithfulness.

I am so very sorry that I didn't know he was buried yesterday as I would have wanted to pay my respects personally to the entire family .I love you all. Love, Jamie
