“ I've had a lot of friends but there were very few that were closer to me than Jim Hoyle. Jimmy helped me on my jobs in construction over the years and by far was one of the best workers I've ever had. I had 4 and 5 men tearing off an old roof and Jimmy would have the debris picked up, thrown in the dumpster, the yard raked and tools put away at the end of the day. With Jimmy's help I had the privilege of remodeling the whole interior of his house. We also installed a 2-layer deck on the back of his house where we enjoyed many cups of coffee. My crew, especially my sons, nicknamed him cruiser for being my gopher and taking many trips in my truck to pick up supplies. We also played a lot of golf and I was with him when he broke 40 for the first time. Did I know Jim Hoyle? Yes I did! Rest in peace, my friend!

“ Jim and I were friends in Dixon High School and beyond. When I moved to Phoenix, AZ in 1967 we only saw each other when I would return to Dixon but I always made it a point to visit him. When we had Kimberly, our first daughter we ask Jim to be her Godfather. Jim was my definition of a nice guy. If you knew Jim and didn’t like him there was something wrong with you. I loved his home by Lowell Park and thought it was a wonderful location. It makes me very sad that Jim is gone.

We became friends after we worked together. Stayed in touch after. I enjoyed his visits when he was in town to get bird seed. He was very kind. I called him Jimbo and he always chuckled. I will miss him and not forget him.
