“ To her family and friends;
Janet is now resting in her Father's arms in Heaven; her suffering is over and she has no more pain.
She lived her life--not simply endured it, or was on auto-pilot, and I think that's some wisdom we all could benefit from. She was my friend, fellow officer in the band, member of musical casts, and I admire her zest for life!
I will miss her very much; she was a great woman, and a great friend!
It was so good to see her last year at her Benefit in April; she was looking good, and I am so glad I was able to be there and help the Class of '75 raise some funds for her care. I hope they made her life a bit easier, while she went through treatment.
Even though I can't be there Thursday for her funeral, I will keep everyone in the family and her friends in my prayers.
As a tribute to her, I'd just like to leave you with words from a Gospel song that I really like: "It's not good-bye, it's see you later."
"We all know you've just gone on ahead. When we believe in Christ, we'll never die, no it's not good-bye; it's not good-bye. No it's not good-bye, it's not good-bye."
God's Grace and Peace to everyone;
and Janet, I'll "see you later!"
In Celebration of a Life Well Lived;
Chris Pitzer
