On June 14, 1949, Jeanne married the love of her life, Arthur “Ace” Shanyfelt. Together they shared many happy years, raising their family in Sublette. Their home was a gathering place for family, friends, and neighbors, reflecting the warmth and generosity that defined Jeanne’s life.

community she proudly called home. Jeanne and Ace spent 21 wonderful years at Woodhaven Lakes, creating treasured memories with family and friends. Following retirement, they enjoyed spending winters in Phoenix, Arizona, while always calling Sublette home.
