“ I am so deeply sorry for your loss. I only knew Jennifer through work, when I worked with her for a short time at Skin Deep Spa and Salon. Even though I didn't work with her long I still considered her a friend. She was such a loving, caring and sweet person. Again, I am so sorry for your loss.

You all are in my thoughts and prayers.

Love,

Callie

“ Andy, I am so sorry for your loss. I cannot imagine what you are going through. You and your boys are in my mind constantly. Take care of yourself and they boys. Jen will always be with you and they boys in your hearts.

“ Andy,

It was a shock to see Jennifer's name when I checked the Telegraph online. No words can bring peace at a time like this, but know that there are many people who are praying for you.

The old expression that time will heal is true, but sometimes time seems to pass too slowly. Remember the great memories that you have of Jennifer. Allow them to bring smiles to your face. Let the love between you bring peace to you.

Best of everything to you and yours.

“ Andy, Carl, Deb & Boys:

We are unable to be with you today, but our thoughts, prayers, and tears will be. As you celebrate Jennifer's life, you will feel the strength of her spirit this day and every day and find the comfort in that strength that she would want you to have.

“ Andy,

So sorry to hear about your wife's death. We can't imagine what you are going through right now. I'm sure your kids are really struggling too. We are praying for your family and if you ever need to talk, we are here. We live across the street from where we used to on Brandywine Lane. Brad surprised us and was here over the weekend. He left Sunday AM and Tommy had called and told him about Jennifer that morning. He went by your folk's home and your house on Galena before he left town to try to hook up with you, but didn't find anyone home at either place. Apparently you have moved also. But I'm sure he will be in contact with you. Hang in there kid.

*Sincerely,

“ Jyn had been my hair dresser for many years. Whenever I was there for an appointment, she always talked about her family, her husband, Andy, and her three little boys. Even if you didn't know Jyn well, you knew that her family meant everything in the world to her. I am so sorry for all of your loss. We can't know or understand God's plan for us or why He would take someone so young who will be so sorely missed. We can only trust in His greater plan and try to take comfort in the knowledge that one day we will be reunited with our loved ones and that the pain which is so sharp today will eventually subside. My wish for you is to get to that peaceful place where you can remember Jyn and all the wonderful memories of such a loving wife, mother, daughter, friend.

“ I graduated with Jynni from PCHS in 92. I remember going to Homecoming with her and a couple of our friends since none of us had dates. Even though I had not talked to her in years I always considered her a friend and will miss her. My thoughts are with first and foremost Andy and the boys and also with Karen and Lew and her extended family.
