“ Sending heartfelt prayers and condolences to Sheila and the Murphy family in the loss of Jody. Growing up I always looked forward to going to my grandparents home in Dixon because we were going to see my cousins Jeff, Jody, and heather. Jody was always the daring one trying to come up with a way to jump the fence or climb a tree without falling. I loved the quirky things that he would do to get us to laugh at times when we were sad. Heaven acquired an angel in heaven in Jody and he will be playing music and watching us all from above. I love you cousin.

“ When I think of Jody I think of how much he loved Sheila and would absolutely do anything for her - he would actually help anyone if he could . I will also always think about playing bingo and how almost all of us would keep saying I need one number lol Jody I will ALWAYS play a card for you and try my best to make sure you always win❤️
