“ Was shocked to see this this morning. I had been going through old albums and found pictures of her children and wanted to find her so looked her up on the internet, I am saddened and shocked. We moved from Dixon in 1964 and have not seen her. She was my son Jim's godmother. He was born 1 10 1960 on his dad's birthday. My condolences to all the family. May her soul rest in peace. Yvonne

“ I will always remember Joyce as a kind and thoughtful woman with a lovely smile.
I still have a small crocheted Christmas ornament that she made for our Catechism class when she was our teacher so many years ago.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences regarding the loss of Joyce. I was very saddened to read of her passing today. I have known Joyce since I was a trust officer in 1994 and had the pleasure of working with her family, including Joyce's parents, Herb and Marcella Cooper. My memories of Joyce are fond ones. I frequently saw Joyce and her husband, Mike in Dixon when they were out shopping or eating out. Joyce was always so friendly and quick to ask about how others were doing. She was always smiling when I saw her. She was also so generous in offering prayers and encouragement to others that she knew were going through hard times. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Warmest regards, Vanessa White
