

Judith Ciaccio

September 18, 1950 - July 12, 2007

Judith Anne Ciaccio, formerly known as Judith Tortorici, passed away on July 12, 2007 at the young age of 56. After a courageous and valiant battle with cancer, she has reluctantly left us to join her father John in heaven. Beautiful, beloved and cherished mother to her heartbroken daughters, Anjanette "Annie" (Tortorici), her husband Bob Gangloff and Gina (Tortorici), her husband Derek Brettman. Sweetheart daughter and "doodlebug" to her ever loving mother Velma. Wonderful, caring and thoughtful baby sister to Dr. Nick Ciaccio, Mike Ciaccio and Sherrie (Ciaccio), her husband John Pearce. Fun, loving and tender guardian angel to her beautiful grandchildren Gabrielle and Brice who she cherished more than life itself. Crazy, silly and goofy Aunt Judie to Laura and Brad. Loving Great Aunt to Isabella. Beloved niece and cousin. Devoted and ever caring friend to so many. Loving Mommy to Miss Priss. Judie had a zest for life, family and friends and will be forever missed by all. She has touched the lives of so many people in so many different ways, from her goofy jokes to her endless compassion to her unsurpassed giving. She leaves behind memories that will forever keep us laughing. Her proudest moments in life were the births of her children and grandchildren. She lived to make others happy and asked for nothing in return but a smile. Judie loved to cook and bake for all of her family and friends. To know Judie was to love her. We would like to thank everyone for all of the thoughts and prayers for Judie and the family throughout the years and through this very difficult time. A memorial service will be held in her honor on Wednesday August 8th, 2007 from 3:00 until 9:00 PM at Salerno's Rosedale Chapels 450 W. Lake St.

Roselle, Illinois, (630) 889-1700. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to
