“ Judy and I worked together for many years. She was kind, sweet and very funny. I remember when we would go on our many diets together. I remember the quilts she made. I even made my first quilt, but mine was a little one for my daughter's doll's bed. I didn't have the patience to make one for a people-sized bed. Judy also did beautiful calligraphy and painted beautiful pictures. I always admired her talents. The last time I saw her was a couple of years ago when I drove her, Marie Mascenic and myself to the GTE reunion. We had a great time. I was saddened when I tried to reach her for this year's reunion and couldn't. I went on the Internet and discovered that. She had passed in August. My condolences to her family.
