“ Lisa, Tom & Mark,
I am so very sorry for your (all of our) loss. Even though I am not there my heart is with you. Justin will always hold a special place in my heart and he will be missed by Cole and Kyle who loved to play with him when he would visit. My God give you all a peace that surpasses all understanding.

*All my love,
Angela*

“ I met Justin for the first time last year while teaching his sophomore English class at Amboy High School. I must say it was like seeing his mom and talking to his dad at the same time. Seeing him really brought back a lot of good memories I had of his mom and dad. My heart aches for you both. I wish there were something I could do or say to help take your pain away at this time. You and your families are in my prayers. From what I did know of Justin, he was a very kind, simple and loving young man. God Bless. Tina

“ Tom & Lisa,
There are no words to express to help with the pain you are going through and how truly sorry we are for your loss.
Justin always had a smile on his face. We were blessed to have been part of his life.
Remember all the special memories you have.
So sorry that we can't be there with you at this time.
Our love, thoughts and prayers are with you now and always.

“ We have all missed Justin here and Cottage Grove and were eager for him to come back and visit. We (me and some of his friends like Nick and Brad) were all so shocked and it's been very hard on us to realize that he is really gone. I wish the best for his family. We will never forget Justin he will always be in our hearts.

“ Tom & Lisa,
I just wanted you to know that I think of Justin every day now, and it doesn't get any easier. I wish I could just wrap him up so nothing bad would happen to him, but I can't...It is with great sadness that I pass on our heartfelt sympathy. May you each find that place that you can go to, that place where you just think of the good times. There is so much more that I want to say, but this isn't the place. Know that we are thinking of you.....Love, Steve & Traci

“ Dear Larson Family,

I am so very sorry for your loss. I know that sometimes in life, there may not be any rhyme nor reason to things that transpire, sometimes there are just no answers. Trust in your faith in God, as he will help carry you through this rough time. Know that Justin will always live in your hearts as he loved all of you, just as he knew how very much you all loved him. I will never forget his smile, and know that there is a new star that now lights the sky. I wish you all peace and comfort at this sad time. With love and sympathy, Karen A. Rozanski

“ I met Justin while him and Lisa were helping my mom, a wedding coordinator/decorator, decorate for a wedding. There were balloons to blow up, table and chair dressings to do, and many things to tote from the car outside in the snow into the reception area. I was taken with Justin almost right away, as he was so cheerful and willing to help, which is unusual for a teenage boy(I know, I have one). He seemed to me to be pure, sincere, and loving. I remember we laughed quite a bit that day, just being goofy and having fun. I pray that he is laughing in heaven with Jesus right now. This world can be a horrible, horrible place, filled with pain and tears. I pray that Justin would never feel another pang of fear or pain or ever shed another tear. Even though I didn't know you well, I love you, Justin. Rest peacefully with our loving Father.

“ Justin will be missed by all of us. He was a great person. I have a poem for him.

*Justin you were a good friend,
with all the spare,
you really cared,
I wish you wouldve let us know what was bothering you inside,
instead of feeling like a tribe.
You will be missed in our hearts.
God bless you with all you opportunities,
We wish you the best with your juries.
Love you Justin.*
