“ Karen was one of my first friends at Washington grade school we finished grade school at Washington we went to our first dances together we'd walk up town on the weekends and go to Prince Castle and buy records and walk home together and it was so sad to know that she had passed away. She was a big part of my childhood. Rest in peace my friend

“ Karen had groomed all of my dogs for the past 30 years. Not only was she a great person with the dogs, she was my best friend. We loved to trade books back and forth every time I took Suzi to get groomed. I will miss her terribly. My condolences to her brother Cliff.
