“ Dear family of Katherine Pettenger,
I know you don't know me but I wanted to share with you my memories of Katherine. When I was 5 years old my father passed away. My mom used to buy all of her cards at Fulmer's. Every holiday we would go in there and your mom would so kindly help me pick out a card to give to my mom for whatever holiday or occasion was coming up. I was not yet old enough to read and she would read up to ten cards to me until I found the one I liked to share with my mom. I have thought many times over the years of her kindness to me. Not having a dad or any older siblings to help me I would have been lost without her help. Her thoughtfulness and selflessness have touched me many times throughout my life. I was sorry to hear of her death but I will always cherish my memories of her. You have my deepest sympathy.

Sincerely,
Laurie Sherrick
