“ It would be hard for me to say all that I admire and love about Kathy. I have been so fortunate to know her and have her in my life. She was a quiet hero. She provided so much care to my family members as they aged and needed assistance with everything from changing light bulbs to cleaning and organizing household goods as they prepared to leave their homes. She did this quietly without attention or reward. She arrived when you needed the most help - somehow knowing exactly what to do. She was kind and joyful as she worked by your side. I treasured her sense of humor and direct communication style. She is one of the best - the person you would always choose to be on your team - whether it was for work or fun. I wish her the peace she so deserves!

“ I worked with Kathy for over twenty five years. I also have known her brothers and sisters all my life. We were all west enders and attended Lincoln School. Having done these two things, it made us a part of a fraternity called the school of hard knocks. This fraternity demands hard work, toughness and loyalty, all the qualities Kathy possessed throughout her life. I'm sure she's probably making pumpkin bars for everyone in heaven right now. RIP Kathy.

“ Kathy was a classmate of mind and then we ended up being grandmas to the same beautiful girl. She always said she would show Kaitlyn all the tomboyish things and I could teach her the girlie things and she did well! I will always be grateful to her for being such a loving, kind grandma and a friend to my daughter, Kaitlyn's mom. May God be holding you in his arms.
