“ To Kathy, Kenny, Kevin, & Keith's family. I'm sorry to hear about Keith's passing. I think of you all back when we were young and working at Becks at the 4 corners. Don't know if you remember that time, this is Keith Schultz. All of us, Mike, Cheryl, Mom and so many others worked there and we had some fun memories. Again sorry to hear about Keith. “ Lynn, Keith Bob, Jenny, Stephanie, Kris, sorry to hear about your dad (Big Keith) as we all referred to him as. You have my deepest sympathy.

I Think of him and the summers we spent in baseball and 4-H together and winter time wrestling meets. All I had to say to him to get him to laugh was an inside joke called 'rocket boy' .

I most definitely know your pain because I just lost the love of my life, Frank Shippert, on Nov. 23, 2022. “ I remember as kids, visiting Uncle Bob and Aunt Margaret's house...it was a little schoolhouse and seeing Keith, Kathy, Kenny, Kevin and Kris. The fantastic meals and great company hanging out with cousins in the biggest kitchen I had ever been in. Great memories there!!!
