“ I'm so sorry to hear about your loss. Keith was a great man, father, grandpa, uncle, brother and so much more. He made great memories with everyone and never a bad one. He helped everyone he ran into that needed help. He had a heart of gold. He will never be forgotten, but remembered by all. The Carlson family loves you and sends our condolences to all his children and family. You are now there angel sore high above them and rest in peace!
