I worked with Kenny in the kitchen of the old nursing home in Dixon across from the old Edward's clinic. He was full of fun, gentle, kind, friendly to all and we loved to share our music which helped the work go faster. Whenever I saw him after we both left the nursing home he always had a few moments to say "Hi" and ask how things were going. An angel has gone home to Heaven. Rest in peace gentle soul.

I've known Kenny since high school and worked at Kreider also He was a great guy, nice to everyone, no drama, and a very caring person. A great loss to his family and the community.
