“ Goodbye my friend Larry, I will always remember your warm smile and good heart. We all had some great times over the years, Greg and I still laugh about how you would always call him Gary because you could not remember his name. I know you are finally without pain and can rest peacefully knowing that so many people cared about you and you left a strong family that will take care of each other. So goodnight my dear friend and goodbye.

“ I haven't seen Larry for 60+ years. However I can feel what his family and friends feel. A lot of Eleanors kids and Kathy, Jerry and me played a lot on Grama and Grampa's farms. I remember Bob, Dudse, Shelby and Ronnie. So sorry for you all. God Bless.
