“ To All The Knoll Family,
I'm sorry I'm so late in sending this. I just want you to know that I have the fondest memories of Lenore. They are old memories, but nonetheless they are very vivid to me. As you do, I remember the family reunions and I wonder if there ever was a more eclectic group. Each extended family member had very real problems, yet I can still hear the laughter. (Of course this was after a few drinks) Duker and his wives, Mary and Ted (they just parked him under a tree with a 6-pack), Joe and Ethelle (Dad usually walked out-pissed off), Joannie, Lenore & Mary smoking in the small bathroom so Gert wouldn't know, - oh just so many small memories that make me laugh. Is it me or did life and the people seem richer and more alive? Anyway - please know that I appreciated your mother as a very strong woman that coped and handled life with grace. I will pray for her.

Oh Jenny, what a tribute to the Dempsey family. Yes I so agree with all you said. Omg so real. I miss my mother every day, they are all gone now but brings tears to my eyes. Not perfect but who is. Love to see you again. This us Oct. 22, 2024. Strange I ran across this so many years later.
