“ I cried at Uncle Lenny and Aunt Gloria's wedding, because they wouldn't let me go with them on their honeymoon! They promised to come and get me as soon as they could (and they did). When I stayed with them I asked if I could go for a walk, and they said I could. It started raining while I was walking, and Uncle Lenny pulled up in the car with a jacket for me. I have wonderful memories of being at Aunt Gloria's and Uncle Lenny's, and I will truly miss him, from the bottom of my heart. My dad (Gene) my brothers (Gary and Jim) my husband (Dwain) myself, and my 4 month old son (Dwain) were caught up in a blizzard on Christmas Eve, and went off the road. Uncle Lenny ventured out on a night that no one should have left there house and rescued all of us and took us back to their house. I loved Uncle Lenny so much, I will miss him so much, even if all we did was talk on the phone for quite a few years. Linda Yepsen

“ I Love Uncle Lenny so very much, he was always one of my favorite Uncle's. He could always make you smile and laugh, and he had that "Up to no good Grin on his face often". He also had that special wink. I will forever Love and miss you.May you rest in peace, free from the pain.Fly high with the rest of the Angels, Fly high.

R.I.P. Uncle Lenny. I started pestering you and Aunt Gloria right from the get go. Flower girl at your wedding, oh wow I hope I behaved myself, but at the age 4 how much trouble could I have gotten into lol. Twinkle in your eye, grin on your face, always looking for someone to help, these and much more are fond memories. God bless Aunt Gloria and all the family.

The happiest times of my childhood included Uncle Lenny and Aunt Gloria, I could always count of them to help me get through a problem, most times they didn't even know about, They just showed me love and acceptance. As I have grown and moved on with my life, and out of the area, they have remained a big part of my life although it was in memories of what would Aunt Gloria and Uncle Lenny say or think of this. Although you have left this life Uncle Lenny you will live forever in my heart. Love and Prayer to all the Family and Friends of Lenny Anderson
