“ Mrs. C. welcomed me into her home too many times to count over the years. In CT, in IN, FL, and IL. The locations changed but the welcoming warmth, care, and love never did. The laughs were always present too.

Our heartfelt condolences and prayers to the entire Carroll family. I have so many fond memories of the kindness they extended to me over the years. The summer trips to Westport and the family get together in Illinois. When I began my career with State Farm in Indianapolis, they opened their home to me for several weeks. You will be missed but never forgotten, aunt Corky. No doubt, you are probably sharing a few laughs at our expense with loved ones! May you Rest In Peace with your beloved husband!
