“ Mom we will be missing you all the time forever you up with Dad now I know I will miss you and miss your phone calls

Richard E Engelkes - July 13, 2025 at 05:54 AM

“ The other day when I first put something on here I couldn't think of a darn thing Then when my mind calm down and started to think about things I remember about sis is that her mind was like a sponge. She remember certain stuff that happened to us all when we were kids. Like when I fell out of the car going around a corner or like when she got pinned with a car door and the side of the house. She held a lot of memories. Some was really good and some not so good. I said to her quite a few times how in the heck do you remember so much stuff and the dates. I mean my goodness she was only two years older than me.

Even though we didn't see eye to eye on certain things. My heart aches knowing I'm never going to talk to you again. I will always miss and love you until there's no tomorrow for me.

“ I will always remember you and how you adored me and your beloved grandkids. I always remember when you told your son if I don't be there for you no one can and how I always was there since the first time you had your illness. Thank you so much for being the lovely lady and grandma anyone could ask for..
