“ Maggie, as we all knew her, was the spark plug which kept our group of pastoral volunteers motivated and energized by her dedication to serving the infirmed at Ste. Rita Nursing Home in Green Valley for several years. I was one of her "brothers in Christ" who looked up to her for guidance and inspiration. She gifted me a lectionary book which Deacons, Priests, & Chaplains use when ministering outside the Sunday Mass. She did that to encourage me to continue to deepen my faith and to further the ways in serving those who cannot be at mass on Sunday. Even now, she fills a special place in my heart because she surely complied with our master's command to "Love one another, as I have loved you."

“ *Dear Michael, Kim and Katy,
I knew Maraget from servicing her great interest in reading at the Wilmington Library. My deepest sympathies go out to all of you. I know how hard it is to lose a loved one at the holidays. May God give you all strength to carry on without her. She leaves me with great memories of Irish humor and twinkling eyes.*
